

ANNOUNCEMENTS

RESOURCE CENTER: Am I really saved? Am I going to heaven? How can I know for sure? Every believer has wrestled with these questions at some point in their journey. Saved Without A Doubt tackles this challenging topic by examining scripture to uncover the truth of salvation, while addressing tough questions that can hinder our faith. Readers will develop a Bible-based theology of salvation and be encouraged to securely rest in their personal relationship with Christ. This book comes with a study guide in the back of the book. Written by John MacArthur. The suggested donation is $8.50.

FINALS WEEK: Another school year is coming to a close for ESU students! Please sign up at the Information Center if you'd like to serve by providing food for finals week meals, (Monday-Thursday) May 9-12. See Jenny Colston with questions.

HELP NEEDED: The 2 ½ to 3 year old worship hour class is in need of a few helpers. We have two young ladies who are graduating and moving on that we need to replace. If you would like to serve once a month in this class and you are a member, please see Pamela Standerwick.

IRONMEN

Men, please plan to join us on Friday, May 6th, for our last meeting before fall. Alvin Colston will be sharing from Ephesians 6:1-9 and 1 Thessalonians 5:12-18 with a message entitled "Discipleship Displayed." Sign up today!

THIS WEEK: MISSION UPDATE

Cotton Tales

"While housing a refugee family in Ukraine, it occurred to me that a crochet hook was something nearly all of these women had in common... Forced out of their homes and/or jobs by the ongoing conflict, each of them has a tale to tell: they are tales of personal tragedy and loss, tales of financial ruin, and tales of ongoing hardship in the midst of an economy in shambles..." Katey Laird, SGA

Since participating in this project our church has distributed many bunnies, a few tigers and is patiently awaiting the arrival of moose and more bunnies. The unique cloth aprons (for children and adults) are quickly becoming a popular item as well. When you order an item from the Cotton Tales project the majority of your donation goes to the woman who made the item and a portion of it helps to cover other costs associated with the project, such as the cost of materials and shipping. Your donation helps refugee families with basic necessities by providing them with supplemental crochet work. This project also brings refugees into regular contact with local believers who are eager to share the hope they have in Christ with them.

Katey recently expressed her thanks for the part our church has played in helping these refugees. They "have been able to add several more women who are barely scraping by in the war zone to the project recently – in part because of what you are doing."

There is a flyer with more information about the involvement of the Ukraine local church, personal stories and contact information for Slavic Gospel Association at the Information Center along with a sign-up list for future shipments. Please note that it might take 3-12 weeks for you to receive your item, so please plan ahead. If you have questions or would like to see pictures of the items contact Lorita Brazzle.

CONDOLENCES

It is with great sadness and yet great rejoicing that we share with you that Almeta Vannocker went home to the Lord this past Wednesday evening. Visitation with the family will be this evening from 6 to 7 p.m. in the Chapel here at FHCC. The service also will be in the Chapel, on Monday at 1:30 p.m., with graveside services to follow in Lebo. Please lift the Vannocker family in prayer this coming week.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Matt and Mariah Huber following the celebration of their marriage one week ago. We wish you both many years of blessings and much happiness!
