

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SYMPATHY: We wish to express our sympathy to Mary and Marshall Anderson on the passing of Mary's mother, Elpha Springeman on July 20th following a lengthy illness. Her service was this past Monday at Sacred Heart Catholic church. Our condolences also go to Mary's grandson, Bradley Springeman and his wife Mandie and family.

We also offer sympathy to Tina and Peter Hauff and family following the passing of Tina's grandmother, Betty Martinie, on Tuesday evening. Her services were Saturday at the Altamont Methodist Church.

Also, Steve Stone is in Oregon for the funeral service of his grandfather, who passed away in January.

Please remember these families in your prayers as they deal with the passing of loved ones. May they and their families find comfort in our Savior, Jesus Christ.

RESOURCE CENTER: Peer pressure, codependency, shame, low self-esteem these are just some of the words used to identify how people are controlled by others opinions. Why is it so important to be liked? Why is rejection so traumatic? Edward T. Welch's insightful, biblical answers to these questions show that freedom from others opinions and genuine, loving relationships grow as we learn about ourselves, others, and God. When People Are Big and God is Small is suitable for adults. What Do You Think of Me? Why Do I Care? is suitable for teenagers and young adults.

POTLUCK TEAMS: We are looking for teams of 4-5 people to help with set up and clean up for our potlucks. If you are interested, please sign up at the Information Center. You will be contacted ahead of a potluck to see if you are able to serve.

COTTONTALES

A reminder that we are still taking orders for CottonTales – handcrafted items that are made by Ukrainian refugees. This ministry helps provide them with basic necessities and brings them into regular contact with local believers in their new cities of refuge. There is an order sign-up sheet at the Information Center as well as display samples of the 2 newest items – a bear and a knitted bunny. Remember that once the order is placed it could take from 3 - 12 weeks to receive the item, so please plan accordingly. For questions or more information contact Lorita Brazzle at 620-437-6121.
