THIS WEEK: YOUTH NEWS & NOTES

Youth group is off to a great start. We are continuing to work through the Book of Romans on Wednesday nights. Our calendar is full with regular youth nights, game nights and a few special events as well.

On Sunday, October 25, we will be hosting our fall lunch fundraiser immediately following the service. We will serve a Spaghetti Supper with salad, bread and dessert. Please consider staying and eating with us following the Worship Service. All donations go to help cover the cost of our bus to Ascend Summer Camp and other youth expenses.

"Fall Clean Up" fundraiser: November 11, 2-5pm

Do you have yard work you need some help with this fall? We have a small crew that will be available to work on their day off of school. All donations will go to helping these individuals pay their way to Ascend Summer Camp in June of 2016.

Thank you for continually supporting us in our fundraisers. Please pray that our students who are not saved would come to saving faith and that those who are will grow in love for their savior, their brothers and sisters in Christ and the lost.

Alvin Colston

Awana is off to a great start this year! Between the crazy hair and mismatched clothes (themes of the night), we have been greatly encouraged by the enthusiasm of the volunteers and particularly the children. As the children work hard on memorizing God's Word, there are a couple of ways that you can partner with them.

Firstly, I encourage you to ask them what verse they are working on, or what verse they most recently memorized. Hearing them speak God's Word is edifying and they will be encouraged by your interest. Secondly, pray for them that the work they are doing will impact their hearts and lives and much fruit will come from it in the years to come. Finally, if you are a member and would like to serve on your Wednesday evenings, please come see me – the more volunteers we have, the more individualized attention the children are able to receive which helps them progress in their books.

Our next night is this coming Wednesday with a theme of "International Night" where we will focus on missions around the world.

Thad Davidson
